DEATH WARRANT READ TO KEELER

Sheriff Performs His Last Duty
in the Matter

MURDERER SHOWS COURAGE

Displays Interest in the Reading of the Document Which is Believed to End His Chances of Escaping the Penalty of His Crime—Rehearing Asked for.

At noon today Sheriff Woolridge received from the Governor the death warrant, directing him or his successor to hang John O. Keeler, the murderer of Joseph Roessner, on Thursday, January 15, 1914. The document is a formidable affair, about two feet square, and contains enough legal verbiage to please the most devoted disciple of Blackstone.

At 1:10 o'clock Sheriff Woolridge went to the county prison and read the death warrant to Keeler. The condemned man paid close attention to the reading of the official document but displayed no emotion. When told that the paper had arrived he remarked that it was all right.

While Keeler has said little about the matter, he feels that the sentence is unjust. According to his statement, he drank from two to four gallons of beer every day he worked at the brewery, besides the whiskey given him from time to time at hotels. When he returned from DuBois on the day of the shooting, he said, he had no intention of harming anyone.

Keeler has been a model prisoner and has given the sheriff but little trouble.

Thursday there was presented to the board of pardons a petition for a rehearing of Keeler's application for commutation of the death sentence.

RECEPTION TO Y. M. C. A. SEC. KESTER

It Will Be Held Tuesday Evening, December 9.

At a meeting of the committee recently appointed to arrange a reception for Mr. Kester, who came to Clearfield last week to assume charge of the Y. M. C. A., held Thursday evening, it was decided to give a reception in the Y. M. C. A. building on Tuesday evening, December 9, at 8 o'clock.

The ladies who comprise the auxiliary of the association will have the social end in charge, and a pleasant time is promised. Music, which will probably include an orchestra, a male quartet and selections on a victrola, will be provided, and a lunch will be served at the conclusion of brief exercises.

It is the desire of the committee that all adult persons interested in the moral, mental and spiritual life of the community attend the reception and extend to Mr. Kester and wife the glad hand of fellowship.

Mr. Kester comes to Clearfield from a large work, excellently equipped by reason of special training and unusual talents, to take up the important work here. The field is large and it is anticipated that under Mr. Kester's leadership much will be accomplished during the coming year.

The reception on Tuesday evening will be quite informal. Its purpose is to give the people of Clearfield an opportunity to get acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Kester.

OGDEN-MAPES

Estimable Young People Married at Home of Bride.

Thursday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Mapes, their esteemed daughter, Claire, was married to Garland Z. Ogden, of Northern Wisconsin, by Rev. H. R. Bender. The bride and groom left on the night train for Wisconsin where Mr. Ogden has a lucrative position. A bountiful repast followed the wedding, and the beautiful presents to the bride attested the esteem of her friends.

CAT GOT THE FISH

Roy Chase Deprived of His Anticipated Good Breakfast.

Thursday evening Roy Chase purchased a white fish, his favorite dish, and on his way home told a friend that he anticipated enjoying himself heartily this morning. Roy's teeth watered so much as a result of his thoughts of what a treat he was going to have that he said his teeth were swimming in water.

When Roy reached home he placed the fish where he thought it would be safe, but he reckoned without 'Squire Curley's' cat. This morning the fish was gone, and when Roy sought an explanation he saw the 'squire's' tabby sitting on the fence picking the fish bones from her teeth.

TWO MORE ACCOUNTS

Sheriff-Elect McCloskey and J. C. Arnold Comply With the Law.

Sheriff-elect McCloskey filed his election expense account on Thursday. He states that he received a contribution of $25 from H. Z. Bauman, paid out $427.35 and owes $24.

John C. Arnold, candidate for district attorney, received no financial aid from anybody and paid out $187.

DOING MUCH GOOD

Dr. College Meeting With Success in U. B. Church.

Rev. Dr. College gives a wonderful description of the crucifixion of Christ at the U. B. church last evening.

Starting with the Christ and the disciples in the Garden of Gethsemane, giving a striking account of the power of prayer and the deceitful kiss of Judas. The false trial of Christ, and his ever faithful and forgiving spirit—"Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

The services are gaining interest each night. Several souls have been saved and many requests for prayer made.

The subject for tonight will be, "An Old Man." Everybody is invited. Services at 7:30.

CIVIL COURT ENDS

Case of Annie Keeler Continued Until the Next Term.

The December term of civil court came to an end Thursday when the jury in the case of the Lane Coal company vs. the Penfield Coal and Coke company brought in a verdict for the plaintiff.

The attorneys in the case of Mrs. Annie Keeler vs. the County of Clearfield had the case continued until the next term of court.

Next week the court of quarter sessions, with two murder trials listed will be held.

Another Boston Hotel Fire.

Boston, Dec. 5.—While investigations of the Arcadia hotel fire by the grand jury, the fire department, the building commission and the mayor were moving forward in an effort to place the blame, the Bar State lodging house, at 55 Hanover street, caught fire and one man was burned to death.

REBELS NOW RULE NORTHERN MEXICO

Ready For Civil Government and Elect Governor.

THINK FIGHTING HAS ENDED

Constitutionalist Commander Believes There Will Be No More Battles, and Government Will Soon Be Organized Entirely Independent of That at Mexico City—Terrazas Made Governor.

Juarez, Mexico, Dec. 5.—While looking by isolated bands or confiscation of property by the rebels may continue, the days of fighting in northern Mexico are numbered, so far as the present revolution is concerned, according to opinions expressed by rebel leaders. General Francisco Villa's assertion that there was not much more to fight for in the north because of the bankrupt condition of the federal army, which caused it to evacuate so important a city as Chihuahua, has spread among the rebels.

What immediately concerns the so-called Constitutionalist party now is the elaboration of its civil government. This embraces a more systematic customs supervision to be enforced along the border. The rebels hold all the important border towns except Nuevo Laredo and Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass. There remains also to be put in force a uniform currency system, for now rebel and federal currency are in conflict, one kind being accepted in one place and another kind in another. The rebel postage stamps already are in use. Many governors and state officials are to be selected.

Governor Selected.

Within a short time, the leaders say, a government will be in operation in the northern half of the country which will be entirely independent of that at Mexico City.

The settlement of the civil questions is one reason why Villa has asked General Carranza to meet him at Chihuahua. Sylvester Terrazas, a newspaper editor in Chihuahua, who is not related to the wealthy Terrazas family, has been selected or governor of the state. Villa expects to leave to Carranza the task of establishing civil government, devoting himself to the military campaign southward toward Mexico City.

CONFER TO REDUCE THE COST OF LIVING

Notable Men Speak at Session in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Dec. 5.—Farm experts, bankers, educators, merchants and other business men began here a three day agricultural conference on relations between city and country, with reference to cost of living and to plan a campaign to reduce the price of food products. Various methods for increasing efficiency in marketing, transportation, farm and soil surveys, farm bureaus and corn shows as means for reducing prices will be advocated at the different sessions by speakers from several states. Wholesale and retail dealers, cold storage men and railroad officials have been invited to participate in the discussion.

Senator Gore of Oklahoma was on the program for an address on "The Interrelation of City and Country." Others who accepted invitations to speak include H. B. Fullerton, New York; G. F. Warren of the agricultural department of Cornell university; Dr. John R. Williams, Rochester, N. Y.; Dr. Currier, chief of the bureau of markets, United States department of agriculture; Emory R. Johnson, University of Pennsylvania; Joseph Chapman, Jr., Minneapolis; and B. F. Harris, president of the Illinois Bankers' association.

MOTHERS' MEETING

Market Street School Patrons Have Interesting Sessions

Thursday evening about 175 ladies attend the mother's meeting in the Market street school building. The hallway of the building was tastefully decorated with laurel.

The meeting opened with a short talk by J. Webster Gally, principal of the building, followed by addresses by A. D. Bigler, president of the board of education, and Sinton Bell, judge-elect.

Miss Martha Glichrist read a selection and Miss Alice Lemon gave a violin solo accompanied by Miss Cassel. After reading by Mrs. Lucy Howe Prof. George E. Zertoss, superintendent of the public schools, delivered an address.

Delightful refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served. The rest of the evening was spent in consultations between parents and teachers relative to the work of the children. This proved to be one of the best meetings of the kind ever held in Clearfield.

POLITICAL NOTES OF LOCAL INTEREST

Progressives Show Activity—
Patton in Harness

State committeemen and Co. chairman of the Washington party from Philadelphia and nearby counties met Wednesday to perfect their organization for the approaching campaign for United States senator, governor and other offices. State chairman Detrich and State Secretary Landerhuth were present and discussed the situation with the committeemen.

Representative John Rex, of Norristown, was chosen chairman and Fred A. Howard, of Chester, secretary of the latter organization.

The Philadelphia Inquirer of recent date says:

Pennsylvania Republicans intend to co-operate with the Republican National congressional committee in a comprehensive campaign in the approaching congressional contests.

Congressman Charles E. Patton, of Clearfield county, is Pennsylvania's representative upon the Republican congressional committee. He is to have a conference in Philadelphia, shortly with Republican State Chairman William E. Crow with a view to enlisting the activities of young Republicans throughout Pennsylvania in the various congressional districts. Gatherings similar to those proposed in this city are to be held in different parts of the state.

SUFFRAGISTS IN NOVEL ATTACK

Want Wilson to Write Special Message to Congress.

DEBATE NEW CONSTITUTION

Committee to Demand That President Recommend Immediate Consideration of the Proposed Amendment to Federal Constitution Prohibiting Sex Discrimination in Voting.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Aggressiveness continued to be the ruling spirit of the woman's suffrage convention. A committee of the delegates sought word from the White House as to the condition of President Wilson, who suffered from a cold. When the chief executive can receive visitors a committee will wait upon him to demand that he send to congress a message recommending immediate consideration of the woman's suffrage amendment to the federal constitution.

The delegates resumed discussion of the budget of the National association for the coming year. With the defeat of the proposed new constitution with its budgetary provision the problem of financing the national propaganda for the ensuing year must be met by a plan proposed in the convention.

Debate New Constitution.

Debate over the adoption of a new constitution centered around the proposed method of raising the money among the state and other affiliated organizations to carry on the work of the national body. The state rights question was involved in the discussion, many of the delegates fearing that state and local suffrage bodies would be weakened if the national organization were allowed to secure its money as proposed.

Thirty-six auxiliary presidents made reports, and the suffragist of wide sympathies who had the hardihood to sit through the reading of a half dozen reports found her mind in a sad jumble. It was almost impossible to remember whether it was Iowa that raised $500 by a handkerchief bazaar or whether it was Nebraska.

HELD FOR $200,000 THEFT.

Philadelphia Banker Arrested After a Long Chase.

Philadelphia, Dec. 5.—Frank Dell Polli, who formerly conducted a bank and a steamship ticket office here, is under arrest. He had been sought by the police for several months on the charge of having embezzled funds amounting to $200,000.

Dell Polli owned the bank in partnership with his brother Joseph. One morning last May the bank failed to open as usual. Word soon circulated in the neighborhood, and a crowd gathered in front of the place. Dell Polli, attempting to make his escape by a rear entrance, was seen by the crowd, and when he started to run several shots were fired at him, but he escaped.

Examination of his books showed a shortage of $200,000. Joseph Dell Polli had also disappeared, and warrants for their arrest were sworn out. Frank Dell Polli was traced to New York, where another brother, Ross, runs a bank at Broome and Lafayette streets. From there the chase led throughout the eastern part of the United States.

BANDIT NOT SMOKED OUT.

Still Forcing Poisonous Gases Into Supposed Refuge in Mine.

Bingham, Utah, Dec. 5.—It was decided by Sheriff Andrew Smith to continue for another twenty-four hours the smudges which were ignited in the Minnie mine Monday afternoon in hope of driving Ralph Lopez, the Mexican bandit, from his hiding place, as it has been learned several tunnels have not been reached by the poisonous gases. Coal tar will be employed in the generation of gases, and it was definitely announced the mine would not be opened until Friday afternoon.

Lopez has now been a fugitive for two weeks and in that time has killed six men—one a countryman, with whom he had engaged in a quarrel, and five peace officers who attempted to arrest him. He took refuge in the Minnie mine last Thursday, but many persons believe he made his escape from the underground workings either Saturday or Sunday, before the work of filling the mine with poisonous gases was begun.

A SAD TALE

Borrowful Fate of a Too Trustful Young Person.

We apologize for increasing the spirit of gloom which pervades the circumambient atmosphere at this time, but the following gem by one of Clearfield's gifted young women is too good to be lost in the depths of the insatiable wastebasket. The name of the author of the beautiful lines is kept secret to avoid an attempt of the great world to inveigle the writer away from her home and friends and add her to the list of immortal poets whose poems have brought tears to millions of eyes. Here goes:

A green little novice, in a green little way,
A green little apple devoured one day,
And the green little grasses now tenderly wave
O'er the green novice's green little grave.

County Institute, Dec 10-12

Good Evening!—Seen anything
that spring poet lately?

John O. Keeler, the murderer of Joseph Roessner will be hanged on January fifteenth next. Keeler had a fair and impartial trial and his attorneys exhausted every means in
their power to save him from explaining his crime on the scaffold. His fate is a warning to other men that bad tempers and whisky are certain
to cause trouble.

Another week has almost passed
without a conflict between United States and Mexico, and the indication
is that Huerta will be given a little more rope with which he may hang himself.

No Casper, there is no way of finding out how much money the candidates paid out to free American
citizens in exchange for their votes.

Don't give a Christmas present merely because it is the custom and
don't be ashamed to be a "spug".

Probably Santa Claus will bring a remedy for the high cost of living
when he distributes his packages on Christmas eve.

With all the march of progress
there are still some people who are always late at a show.

New Yorkers do not believe in all
this talk of the high cost of living.
Why in that city you can hire a gun
man to kill your enemy for the insignificant sum of fifteen dollars.

Secretary-Kalbfus of the state
game commission once over the fact that not more than six or seven persons were killed and over fifty injured in hunting a wild turkey in Pennsylvania this year. It is an amazing fact that there are a team
wards were among the killed and wounded. The average game ward doesn't venture into the woods for a month in the hunting season because of the life or person.

MRS. MCCORMICK.

Suffragette Who Demands
That President Wilson Tell
Where He Stands on Subject.

The national American woman suffrage
convention determined to send a committee to see President Wilson and urge upon
him the desirability of making at least
one of his promised later messages to congress deal with the question of nationwide woman suffrage. This was an aftermath of an exciting scene in the convention hall when a resolution of criticism
some of the more ardent suffragists would like to have it called a resolution of cen-
sure—was passed amid scenes of enthusiasm. The resolution introduced by Mrs.
Medill McCormick, like its precursor, received a unanimous vote.

You will find all kinds of useful
gifts for Christmas at William Powell's Hardware store. Why not be a Spug?

One can readily appreciate the real saving to you, when you realize that all Baumeister and Archer Pianos offered in this Christmas Club are sold from "Factory to Home" direct and that every instrument is from 25 to 35 per cent. less than any dealer or carry-all can sell. Pianos of the same grade.

It's a simple analysis—a dealer must pay the jobber's profit who in turn must pay the manufacturer's profit before selling to you. We as manufacturers sell you direct, charging only a legitimate profit.

This helpful Christmas Co-Operative Club can save you as much as $235.00 from prices for same quality advertised elsewhere.

This is not a Club that confines you to one "cheap" (?) Piano or Player Piano. It is a genuine opportunity to buy the Piano you want and at a big saving.

Guaranteed Absolutely

We guarantee the Baumeister and Archer Player Pianos in every respect or money refunded. Compare this guarantee with the rambling statements ordinarily furnished. We SAY: Use any one of these instruments 30 days. Return it if you don't like it and Get Your Money Back.

Join the Christmas Club at once and be sure of your buying privilege. Select the instrument later if you prefer, but would advise you to select now as we cannot possibly increase the membership above 50 members in this club as we are rushed with orders to such an extent that we now have orders in the factory that cannot be delivered at the Clearfield store before Dec. 1st and our factory is working over time and will be until 1914.

FAILS TO RESCUE MRS. PANKHURST

Militant Arrested and Is Sent
to Jail on Landing.

RUSE MISLED SUFFRAGETTES

General Flora Drummond and Band of Armed Women Had Planned to Prevent Arrest of Leader at Any Cost.
Detectives Remove Leader From Liner
Before It Reached Dock.

Plymouth, England, Dec. 5.—Mrs.
Christine Pankhurst, leader of the militant suffragettes, was rearrested
off Devonport, two miles from here,
on the steamship Majestic, on which
she returned from America, was approaching Plymouth.

By a ruse the police took her into custody without disturbance, completely outwitting "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond's militant bodyguard, who were massed here to protect their leader. When the Majestic was sighted outside the harbor, a police boat

loaded with Scotland Yard detectives
put off to her. A little later the suffragettes started out in a White Star
tug on which were six policemen, who acted as if they really expected a fight.
The government tug with the detectives had met the Majestic off Devonport half an hour before, and Mrs.
Pankhurst was on her way to Bull
Point in an automobile guarded by officers before the Plymouth suffra-

gettes knew and lost about it.
Police Ruse a Success.

The Plymouth police then solemnly
boarded the Majestic, followed by the militant bodyguards. They went to
Mrs. Pankhurst's stateroom, and not until then did the women know they had been forestalled. Mrs. Pankhurst, mildly protesting, was taken off in the government tug at Devonport and
rushed by automobile to Bull point,

where the police held her for further orders from the home office.

Mrs. Pankhurst is subject to communications of any kind. She is under a three weeks' sentence for failing to silence and while in France and America was at liberty under an expired writ and passport license.
Great crowds of people from Plymouth, London and other cities thronged

the quays here to see Mrs. Pankhurst arrive, and they were greatly disappointed when the fight expected by the Women's Social and Political Union failed
to come off.

A militant bodyguard was told off to prevent Mrs. Pankhurst's arrest at all costs. Armed with batons or stout sticks, groups of militants had been
parading the streets and quays, watching every move made by the police.

The first meeting of the Bridge-
club for the benefit of the Hospital
will be held at the residence of E.
C. Wright on Thursday, Dec. 12, at 8 o'clock. After the meetings will be every alternate Friday. All persons wishing to join will please send
their names in early. St. Dec. 2.

DEATH WARRANT READ TO KEELER

Sheriff Performs His Last Duty
in the Matter

MURDERER SHOWS COURAGE

Displays Interest in the Reading of the Document Which is Believed to End His Chances of Escaping the Penalty of His Crime—Rehearing Asked for.

At noon today Sheriff Woolridge received from the Governor the death warrant, directing him or his successor to hang John O. Keeler, the murderer of Joseph Roesser, on Thursday, January 15, 1914. The document is a formidable affair, about two feet square, and contains enough legal verbiage to please the most devoted disciple of Blackstone.

At 1:10 o'clock Sheriff Woolridge went to the county prison and read the death warrant to Keeler. The condemned man paid close attention to the reading of the official document but displayed no emotion. When told that the paper had arrived he remarked that it was all right.

While Keeler has said little about the matter, he feels that the sentence is unjust. According to his statement, he drank from two to four gallons of beer every day he worked at the brewery, besides the whiskey given him from time to time at hotels. When he returned from DuBois on the day of the shooting, he said, he had no intention of harming anyone.

Keeler has been a model prisoner and has given the sheriff but little trouble.

Thursday there was presented to the board of pardons a petition for a rehearing of Keeler's application for commutation of the death sentence.

RECEPTION TO Y. M.

C. A. SEC. KESTER

It Will Be Held Tuesday Evening, December 9.

At a meeting of the committee recently appointed to arrange a reception for Mr. Kester, who came to Clearfield last week to assume charge of the Y. M. C. A., held Thursday evening, it was decided to give a reception in the Y. M. C. A. building on Tuesday evening, December 9, at 8 o'clock.

The ladies who comprise the auxiliary of the association will have the social end in charge, and a pleasant time is promised. Music, which will probably include an orchestra, a male quartet and selections on a victrola, will be provided, and a lunch will be served at the conclusion of brief exercises.

It is the desire of the committee that all adult persons interested in the moral, mental and spiritual life of the community attend the reception and extend to Mr. Kester and wife the glad hand of fellowship.

Mr. Kester comes to Clearfield from a large work, excellently equipped by reason of special training and unusual talents, to take up the important work here. The field is large and it is anticipated that under Mr. Kester's leadership much will be accomplished during the coming year.

The reception on Tuesday evening will be quite informal. Its purpose is to give the people of Clearfield an opportunity to get acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Kester.

CAT GOT THE FISH

Roy Chase Deprived of His Anticipated Good Breakfast.

Thursday evening Roy Chase purchased a white fish, his favorite dish, and on his way home told a friend that he anticipated enjoying himself heartily this morning. Roy's teeth watered so much as a result of his thoughts of what a treat he was going to have that he said his teeth were swimming in water.

When Roy reached home he placed the fish where he thought it would be safe, but he reckoned without 'Squire Curley's' cat. This morning the fish was gone, and when Roy sought an explanation he saw the 'squire's' tabby sitting on the fence picking the fish bones from her teeth.

DOING MUCH GOOD

Dr. College Meeting With Success in U. B. Church.

Rev. Dr. College gives a wonderful description of the crucifixion of Christ at the U. B. church last evening.

Starting with the Christ and the disciples in the Garden of Gethsemane, giving a striking account of the power of prayer and the deceitful kiss of Judas. The false trial of Christ, and his ever faithful and forgiving spirit—"Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

The services are gaining interest each night. Several souls have been saved and many requests for prayer made.

The subject for tonight will be, "An Old Man." Everybody is invited. Services at 7:30.

Next week the court of quarter sessions, with two murder trials listed will be held.

Another Boston Hotel Fire.

Boston, Dec. 5.—While investigations of the Arcadia hotel fire by the grand jury, the fire department, the building commission and the mayor were moving forward in an effort to place the blame, the Bar State lodging house, at 55 Hanover street, caught fire and one man was burned to death.

REBELS NOW RULE NORTHERN MEXICO

Ready For Civil Government and Elect Governor.

THINK FIGHTING HAS ENDED

Constitutionalist Commander Believes There Will Be No More Battles, and Government Will Soon Be Organized Entirely Independent of That at Mexico City—Terrazas Made Governor.

Juarez, Mexico, Dec. 5.—While looking by isolated bands or confiscation of property by the rebels may continue, the days of fighting in northern Mexico are numbered, so far as the present revolution is concerned, according to opinions expressed by rebel leaders. General Francisco Villa's assertion that there was not much more to fight for in the north because of the bankrupt condition of the federal army, which caused it to evacuate so important a city as Chihuahua, has spread among the rebels.

What immediately concerns the so-called Constitutionalist party now is the elaboration of its civil government. This embraces a more systematic customs supervision to be enforced along the border. The rebels hold all the important border towns except Nuevo Laredo and Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass. There remains also to be put in force a uniform currency system, for now rebel and federal currency are in conflict, one kind being accepted in one place and another kind in another. The rebel postage stamps already are in use. Many governors and state officials are to be selected.

Governor Selected. Within a short time, the leaders say, a government will be in operation in the northern half of the country which will be entirely independent of that at Mexico City.

The settlement of the civil questions is one reason why Villa has asked General Carranza to meet him at Chihuahua. Sylvester Terrazas, a newspaper editor in Chihuahua, who is not related to the wealthy Terrazas family, has been selected or governor of the state. Villa expects to leave to Carranza the task of establishing civil government, devoting himself to the military campaign southward toward Mexico City.

Wholesale and retail dealers, cold storage men and railroad officials have been invited to participate in the discussion.

Market Street School Patrons Have Interesting Sessions

Miss Martha Glichrist read a selection and Miss Alice Lemon gave a violin solo accompanied by Miss Cassel. After reading by Mrs. Lucy Howe Prof. George E. Zertoss, superintendent of the public schools, delivered an address.

Delightful refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served. The rest of the evening was spent in consultations between parents and teachers relative to the work of the children. This proved to be one of the best meetings of the kind ever held in Clearfield.

SUFFRAGISTS IN NOVEL ATTACK

Want Wilson to Write Special Message to Congress.

DEBATE NEW CONSTITUTION

Committee to Demand That President Recommend Immediate Consideration of the Proposed Amendment to Federal Constitution Prohibiting Sex Discrimination in Voting.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Aggressiveness continued to be the ruling spirit of the woman's suffrage convention. A committee of the delegates sought word from the White House as to the condition of President Wilson, who suffered from a cold. When the chief executive can receive visitors a committee will wait upon him to demand that he send to congress a message recommending immediate consideration of the woman's suffrage amendment to the federal constitution.

The delegates resumed discussion of the budget of the National association for the coming year. With the defeat of the proposed new constitution with its budgetary provision the problem of financing the national propaganda for the ensuing year must be met by a plan proposed in the convention.

Debate New Constitution. Debate over the adoption of a new constitution centered around the proposed method of raising the money among the state and other affiliated organizations to carry on the work of the national body. The state rights question was involved in the discussion, many of the delegates fearing that state and local suffrage bodies would be weakened if the national organization were allowed to secure its money as proposed.

Thirty-six auxiliary presidents made reports, and the suffragist of wide sympathies who had the hardihood to sit through the reading of a half dozen reports found her mind in a sad jumble. It was almost impossible to remember whether it was Iowa that raised $500 by a handkerchief bazaar or whether it was Nebraska.

HELD FOR $200,000 THEFT.

Philadelphia Banker Arrested After a Long Chase.

Philadelphia, Dec. 5.—Frank Dell Polli, who formerly conducted a bank and a steamship ticket office here, is under arrest. He had been sought by the police for several months on the charge of having embezzled funds amounting to $200,000.

Dell Polli owned the bank in partnership with his brother Joseph. One morning last May the bank failed to open as usual. Word soon circulated in the neighborhood, and a crowd gathered in front of the place. Dell Polli, attempting to make his escape by a rear entrance, was seen by the crowd, and when he started to run several shots were fired at him, but he escaped.

Examination of his books showed a shortage of $200,000. Joseph Dell Polli had also disappeared, and warrants for their arrest were sworn out. Frank Dell Polli was traced to New York, where another brother, Ross, runs a bank at Broome and Lafayette streets. From there the chase led throughout the eastern part of the United States.

BANDIT NOT SMOKED OUT.

Still Forcing Poisonous Gases Into Supposed Refuge in Mine.

Bingham, Utah, Dec. 5.—It was decided by Sheriff Andrew Smith to continue for another twenty-four hours the smudges which were ignited in the Minnie mine Monday afternoon in hope of driving Ralph Lopez, the Mexican bandit, from his hiding place, as it has been learned several tunnels have not been reached by the poisonous gases. Coal tar will be employed in the generation of gases, and it was definitely announced the mine would not be opened until Friday afternoon.

Lopez has now been a fugitive for two weeks and in that time has killed six men—one a countryman, with whom he had engaged in a quarrel, and five peace officers who attempted to arrest him. He took refuge in the Minnie mine last Thursday, but many persons believe he made his escape from the underground workings either Saturday or Sunday, before the work of filling the mine with poisonous gases was begun.

A SAD TALE

Borrowful Fate of a Too Trustful Young Person.

We apologize for increasing the spirit of gloom which pervades the circumambient atmosphere at this time, but the following gem by one of Clearfield's gifted young women is too good to be lost in the depths of the insatiable wastebasket. The name of the author of the beautiful lines is kept secret to avoid an attempt of the great world to inveigle the writer away from her home and friends and add her to the list of immortal poets whose poems have brought tears to millions of eyes. Here goes:

A green little novice, in a green little way,

A green little apple devoured one day,

And the green little grasses now tenderly wave

O'er the green novice's green little grave.

COMING EVENTS.

Bazaar, Y. M. C. A. hall Dec 6
County Institute, Dec 10-12

Good Evening!—Seen anything
that spring poet lately?

John O. Keeler, the murderer of Joseph Roesser will be hanged on January fifteenth next. Keeler had a fair and impartial trial and his attorneys exhausted every means in
their power to save him from explaining his crime on the scaffold. His fate is a warning to other men that
bad tempers and whisky are certain
to cause trouble.

Another week has almost passed
without a conflict between United States and Mexico, and the indication
is that Huerta will be given a little
more rope with which he may hang
himself.

No Casper, there is no way of
finding out how much money the
candidates paid out to free American
citizens in exchange for their votes.

Don't give a Christmas present
merely because it is the custom and
don't be ashamed to be a "spug".

Probably Santa Claus will bring a
remedy for the high cost of living
when he distributes his packages on Christmas eve.

With all the march of progress
there are still some people who are
always late at a show.

New Yorkers do not believe in all
this talk of the high cost of living.
Why in that city you can hire a gun
man to kill your enemy for the in-
significant sum of fifteen dollars.

Secretary-Kalbfus of the state
game commission once over the
fact that not more than six or
seven persons were killed and over fifty injured in hunting a wild cat in Pennsylvania this year. It is an amazing fact that there are a team
wards were among the killed and wounded. The average game ward doesn't venture into the woods far enough in the hunting season to endanger the life of a person.

MRS. MCCORMICK.

Suffragette Who Demands
That President Wilson Tell
Where He Stands on Subject.

The national American woman suffrage
convention determined to send a committee to see President Wilson and urge upon
him the desirability of making at least
one of his promised later messages to congress deal with the question of nationwide woman suffrage. This was an aftermath of an exciting scene in the convention hall when a resolution of criticism
some of the more ardent suffragists would
like to have it called a resolution of cen-
sure—was passed amid scenes of enthusiasm. The resolution introduced by Mrs.
Medill McCormick, like its precursor, received a unanimous vote.

You will find all kinds of useful
gifts for Christmas at William Powell's Hardware store. Why not be a Spug?

$400 Player Piano

Pay only $10 Down and $2.50 Weekly thereafter, no interest.

One can readily appreciate the real saving to you, when you realize that all Baumeister and Archer Pianos offered in this Christmas Club are sold from "Factory to Home" direct and that every instrument is from 25 to 35 per cent. less than any dealer or carry-all can sell. Pianos of the same grade.

It's a simple analysis—a dealer must pay the jobber's profit who in turn must pay the manufacturer's profit before selling to you. We as manufacturers sell you direct, charging only a legitimate profit.

This helpful Christmas Co-Operative Club can save you as much as $235.00 from prices for same quality advertised elsewhere.

This is not a Club that confines you to one "cheap" (?) Piano or Player Piano. It is a genuine opportunity to buy the Piano you want and at a big saving.

Guaranteed Absolutely

We guarantee the Baumeister and Archer Player Pianos in every respect or money refunded. Compare this guarantee with the rambling statements ordinarily furnished. We SAY: Use any one of these instruments 30 days. Return it if you don't like it and Get Your Money Back.

Join the Christmas Club at once and be sure of your buying privilege. Select the instrument later if you prefer, but would advise you to select now as we cannot possibly increase the membership above 50 members in this club as we are rushed with orders to such an extent that we now have orders in the factory that cannot be delivered at the Clearfield store before Dec. 1st and our factory is working over time and will be until 1914.

Militant Arrested and Is Sent
to Jail on Landing.

RUSE MISLED SUFFRAGETTES

General Flora Drummond and Band of Armed Women Had Planned to Prevent Arrest of Leader at Any Cost.
Detectives Remove Leader From Liner
Before It Reached Dock.

Plymouth, England, Dec. 5.—Mrs.
Christine Pankhurst, leader of the militant suffragettes, was rearrested
off Devonport, two miles from here,
on the steamship Majestic, on which
she returned from America, was approaching Plymouth.

By a ruse the police took her into
custody without disturbance, completely outwitting "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond's militant bodyguard, who
were massed here to protect their leader. When the Majestic was sighted outside the harbor, a police boat

loaded with Scotland Yard detectives
put off to her. A little later the suffragettes started out in a White Star
tug on which were six policemen, who
acted as if they really expected a fight.
The government tug with the detectives had met the Majestic off Devonport half an hour before, and Mrs.
Pankhurst was on her way to Bull
Point in an automobile guarded by
officers before the Plymouth suffra-

gettes knew and lost about it.
Police Ruse a Success.

The Plymouth police then solemnly
boarded the Majestic, followed by
the militant bodyguards. They went to
Mrs. Pankhurst's stateroom, and not until then did the women know they
had been forestalled. Mrs. Pankhurst,
mildly protesting, was taken off in the
government tug at Devonport and
rushed by automobile to Bull point.

where the police held her for further
orders from the home office.

Mrs. Pankhurst is subject to communications of any kind. She is under
a three weeks' sentence for failing
to silence and while in France and
America was at liberty under an expired writ and non-suit license.
Great crowds of people from Plymouth, London and other cities thronged

the quays here to see Mrs. Pankhurst arrive, and they were greatly disappointed when the fight expected by the Women's Social and Political Union failed
to come off.

A militant bodyguard was told off to prevent Mrs. Pankhurst's arrest at all costs. Armed with batons or stout
sticks, groups of militants had been
parading the streets and quays, watching every move made by the police.

The first meeting of the Bridge
club for the benefit of the Hospital
will be held at the residence of E.
C. Wright on Thursday, Dec. 12, at 8 o'clock. After the meetings will be every alternate Friday. All persons wishing to join will please send
their names in early. St. Dec. 2.
